TRAINING RESOURCES FOR FOSTER & ADOPTIVE FAMILIES

Much is being discovered about the impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) on a child's body, brain and behavior. Ongoing training often provides new ideas and insights for parenting a child with many ACEs. Below is a list of free or low-cost training resources when you want to add new tools to your parenting toolbox or get needed re-certification hours!

**Be sure to check with your agency for specific recertification requirements.****
