

Everyone Can Do Something

Are you wanting to support kids connected to child welfare, but aren't sure where to start? You can promote quality foster care for children in need of homes in many ways. Here are a few:

IF YOU HAVE A FEW MINUTES

- Visit Raise the Future site to pray for one waiting child
<https://www.raisethefuture.org/waiting-children>
- Learn more about what it takes to be a foster parent in Colorado
<https://co4kids.org/foster-care-adoption/foster-care-in-colorado/>
- Thank a foster family for serving kids in their home and pray for them
- Like Project 1.27 on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/Proj127>
- Follow Project 1.27 on Instagram <http://www.instagram.com/Project1.27>
- Contact a Parent Support Group about providing snacks for one of their meetings
- Make a financial contribution to a foster care organization (You might consider Project 1.27)
- Wear a blue ribbon during May and be ready to explain what it stands for: Foster Care Month
- Wear a purple ribbon during November and be ready to explain what it stands for: National Adoption Month

IF YOU HAVE A FEW HOURS

- Host coffee and doughnuts for county caseworkers
- Send thank you cards or gift cards to caseworkers
- Share a meal or a gift card with a foster family
- Help prepare the home of a family anticipating a new foster or adoptive placement
- Volunteer to be a neighbor through Project 1.27's Neighbor Program <https://www.project127.org/neighborprogram.html>
- Fill a backpack for a child entering foster care <https://packsofhope.org/>

IF YOU HAVE MORE TIME

- Become a foster parent or respite care provider
- Volunteer with Royal Family Kids Camps
- Become a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA)
<https://www.coloradocasa.org/>
- Organize a foster/adoption ministry. Email info@project127.org
- Join a foster family's Support Team <https://www.project127.org/supportteam.html>
